ARUNDEL CATHEDRAL:

Will mark its 150th anniversary this weekend with the celebration of Vespers on Friday 30 June, and Mass on Saturday 1 July, attended by the Apostolic Nuncio, Bishops from across England and Wales, and representatives from our parishes and schools. Bishop Richard said: "The Cathedral of the Diocese... is a focus for prayer, worship and Christian life for the people of Surrey and Sussex and it is a real joy to be able to celebrate this historic event. I look forward to meeting the many pilgrims who will travel to Arundel to mark the anniversary."

SYNOD 2021-2024:

A new Synod document called 'Instrumentum laboris' was released last week. It calls for a welcoming Church which embraces diversity, with the document forming the basis for the work of those participating in the General Assembly of the Synod on Synodality, which begins at the Vatican in October this year.

You can read Instrumentum laboris on the A & B website.

CONGRATULATIONS:

To Annemieke, Annie, Barnaby, Felicity, Leonor, Lucy, Marcus and Matty for making their First Holy Communion in the Chapel at Mayfield. We pray that they will always recognise and celebrate God's presence in their everyday lives and that God will walk with them on their journey of faith just as He once did with the disciples on the road to Emmaus.
